James Sprunt Community College—Joy of Painting

The course is for anyone who has not painted before or who would like to brush up on their painting skills. Anyone can learn this easy technique. Now is the time to try painting for a hobby! You don't need any painting experience!

Come join the fun! This class will allow you to use your imagination to paint realistically in a short period of time. Learn how to create your own master piece. You will get step by step instructions from Norma Moore. Ms. Moore will have you painting in no time. All skill levels are welcome, no previous training required. If you are a beginner and just want to try it out or if you are an experienced artist, this class is definitely for you. You will create a unique painting to take home.

If you are interested in joining the popular class, please call to pre register at 910-296-2462.
