

James Sprunt Community College
Small Business Center presents
“Going Green” Seminar Series
6:00 pm – 9:00 pm each session
Monk Auditorium, Hoffler Building each session

“Going green” – What does it all mean? These sessions are designed to give an introduction to businesses and individuals on how to make your business, home and community more “green,” and what the benefits of these actions might be. We will also explore “green” business opportunities.

How to Build a Small Green Business – Tuesday, September 15 - This seminar will assist participants in discovering several areas for and ways to start a business that not only is profitable, but also helpful to our environment. Sustainability and LEED certification will be reviewed. Sam Gore

Going Green 101 – Tuesday, Oct. 6 – Everyday, there is a new article or news story about some aspect of “going green” to help the environment. This session will put all areas of “going green” in perspective, and teach businesses and entrepreneurs how to discover sustainable green business advantages that can increase revenues and profits. Green business opportunities will also be explored. Gerald Waller and Lynn Davis

Weatherization Tax Incentives and Energy Audits in the “Green” Economy – Tuesday, Oct. 20 - Earlier this year, Obama’s “Stimulus Bill” extended the “Federal Tax Credits for Energy Efficiency” for homes and commercial buildings to the end of 2010. This session will provide an overview of these tax credits, and how you may be able to apply them to your business and/or home. You will also learn how to conduct an energy audit of your home or business to determine how to make “going green” save you money!! Gerald Waller

Introduction to Solar Power – Tuesday, Nov. 3 – This session will provide an overview of the fundamentals of photovoltaic (solar) systems, and how this technology might be implemented in your business or home to decrease your utility bill. Solar business opportunities will be explored. Gerald Waller and Lynn Davis
