JSCC Student

If there are circumstances that may affect the amount of your Expected Family Contribution, such as, loss of employment, loss of nontaxable income or benefits, separation or divorce, etc., please write a detailed statement below. You will need to be very specific in your statement. After you complete this statement, please call (910)296-2503 and make an appointment to review your financial aid file. There will be additional documentation required at this appointment. You should be informed of this at the time you make your appointment. This documentation will allow the Financial Aid Office to determine if an adjustment may be made to your 2010-2011 Student Aid Report. The family contribution may or may not be adjusted and you will be notified after the information is reviewed. Incomplete forms and/or other documentation required will not be processed.
