

JSCC Foundation Holds 24th Annual Golf Tournament

Kenansville, North Carolina October 6, 2009 – Stunning blue skies and crisp, clear sunshine set a gorgeous stage on the links at River Landing Country Club for a resoundingly successful JSCC Foundation Golf Tournament. In spite of uncertainty in the economy, 28 teams rallied in support of James Sprunt Community College, and the James Sprunt Foundation in its major fundraising event of the year. Held Thursday, October 1, the purpose of the tournament was to raise funds for scholarships for JSCC students. A record-setting number of 45 hole sponsors also contributed to the cause.

“It is most gratifying to see the continued support for James Sprunt Community College and its students from the surrounding community. We are extremely grateful to River Landing Country Club, Foundation Trustees, the teams, the sponsors, the donors, and all the volunteers that have made this such a successful tournament,” said Dr. Lawrence Rouse, JSCC President. “The College and the community remain committed to each other and to the well being of Duplin County and its citizens.”

With a score of 55, first place went to Bayer CropScience Team with Rick Love, Randall Whaley, Randy Smith, and Brian Glover. Second place was taken by New Beginnings Construction, Inc. with Jody Cavanaugh, Mark Cavanaugh, Keith Deatherage, and Elliott Jarman with a score of 56. Third place winners were Neil Armstrong, Charles Armstrong, Rick Wells, and Ed Townsend of Townsend Construction Team, scoring 56. Fourth place went to Team Cas-Mech Services, Charles Sumner, Pete Melville, Mike Melville, and Todd Phillips with a 58. With a score of 59, fifth place went to Truett Booth Team, Truett Booth, Joe Norman, Rhett Graham, and Greg Buckner. Sixth place was taken by Lost Cause Team, Guy Towne, Doc Brinson, Al Lassiter, and Roland Gammon with a score of 59.

Sandy Sanderson was the raffle winner taking home a Cleveland Launcher Driver. The 50/50 shoot-out winner was Guy Towne winning $180. Buddy Gainey and Robert Shepherd each won 2 free rounds of golf graciously donated by River Landing Country Club. Palmer Smith was recognized as closest to the pin on Number 3 and Number 6, and Dewey Houston was closest to the pin on Number 17. Lucinda Maready hit the longest drive for women on Number 1 and Edwin Crute, Jr. hit the longest drive for men on Number 15.

James Sprunt Community College and the James Sprunt Foundation express their thanks to Jeanine Cavanaugh, Secretary of the Foundation, who spearheaded this successful event.
