JAMES SPRUNT COMMUNITY COLLEGE
STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES
TRAVEL POLICY

James Sprunt Community College and the Student Support Services Program strictly prohibit the consumption of alcoholic beverages while on Student Support Services sponsored functions. We also expect our participants to act in a mature and responsible manner throughout the course of travel, and while we are at the hotel. JSCC college catalog clearly states that, “Therefore, it is the policy of this college that the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of a controlled substance or alcohol, is prohibited while in the workplace, on college premises or as part of any college sponsored activities.” Any student that violates this policy will be subject to disciplinary action. You are also not to bring any guns, weapons or knives on this trip. Security checks may be a possible reality on trips; therefore, it is important that you comply with the policies established by James Sprunt Community College and the Student Support Services Program.

Revised 8/05/08
The goal of the Student Support Services program is to provide financial support to SSS participants as allowed by the Student Support Services regulations. The support will be used to assist students, who receive the PELL grant and are in danger of dropping out of college for financial reasons to remain in college.

SSS grant aid is financial grant aid that a SSS project may award to current year participant. Our goal is to award current participants who are in their first two years of postsecondary education and who are receiving Federal Pell Grants.

The students will be identified by the following measures:

- Student MUST receive Pell Grant.
- LASSI – Students must take the LASSI test. The test is designed to identify individual learning styles and strategies.
- Meet with a staff member at least once a month and mid-semester.
- Attend at least one workshop (test taking, time management, decision making interview skills, etc.) during the semester to develop and/or enhance academic survival skills.
- Have a GPA of 2.2 (freshmen), 2.5 (sophomore) or better to be considered for Grant Aid.
- Pursue your program/degree to completion and/or transfer to a four-year college (if that is a part of your academic plan). Transfer students should attend at least one campus visit, and/or College Day session. Contact Transfer Counselor for details/dates/times.
- Contact the Academic Skills Advisor if you decide to stop meeting with your assigned tutor; if there are problems with your tutor; and/or if you are unable to meet for your tutoring session.
- Evaluate the tutor and program services as requested.
- A signed Participant Contract must be on file.
- Notify the Special Needs Advisor if accommodations are needed.

The SSSP Financial Aid Advising Committee will recommend participants to receive grant aid based on the following criteria and points system:

- Low-Income and First Generation – 10 points
- Low Income Only or First Generation Only – 5 points
- Single, Head of Household – 2.5 points
- Disabled – 2.5 points
- Disabled and Low Income – 5 points

Participation in Project Services/Activities: Mid-semester – 5 points Workshops – 5 points
- LASSI – 5 points
- Tutorial Services – 5 points
- Counseling/Advising – 5 points
- TRiO Day celebration/cultural events/campus visit – 5 points
- Assisted lab/Computer assisted instruction – 5 points

TOTAL: 50 points maximum
