

NURSING ASSISTANT I

James Sprunt Community College's allied health program is offering training for students seeking to become a certified nurse's aide. The Nursing Assistant Program is designed to provide students with the hands-on training necessary to offer high-quality care to patients while working alongside other qualified health care professionals. The NAI program is comprised of 192 hours of training. Students will receive CPR training and during their training.

Once classroom, laboratory and clinical training are successfully completed the student will be prepared to take the National Nurse Aide Assessment Program (NNAAP) and become listed on the North Carolina Nurse Aide I Registry. Our qualified instructors are all North Carolina Board of Nursing approved instructors with years of experience including solid foundations in long term care as well as acute care settings. Let us help you embark on a new and rewarding career in the healthcare field.
