DEPENDENCY OVERRIDE FORM

Student Name ____________________________________  ID__________________________

A dependency override generally can be CONSIDERED for an otherwise dependent FAFSA applicant if one or more of the following conditions exist and are documented by the applicant:

1. An emotionally or physically abusive, unhealthy, or unsafe family environment exists
2. Abandonment or neglect of the student by the parent(s) have occurred
3. The custodial parent(s) is incarcerated
4. The student has been removed from the parent(s) residence by court order
5. Other unusual or extraordinary circumstances, events or incidents, particularly ones related to any of the seven automatic conditions for independency listed on the FAFSA
6. Other supporting documentation such as police reports or court orders

The federal Higher Education Act prescribes regulations regarding a student’s dependency status. In accordance with US Department of Education guidance, a dependency override cannot be approved for an otherwise dependent financial aid (FAFSA) applicant if the following conditions are the only circumstances cited by the applicant:

1. The student claims financial self-sufficiency
2. A parent is UNWILLING to contribute financially toward the student’s educational and living expenses.
3. A parent is UNWILLING to provide information required on the student’s FAFSA or to assist in completing the verification process, and/or
4. A parent DOES NOT claim the student as a federal income tax exemption
5. You and your parents have disagreements resulting in a strained relationship

If you have been approved for a Dependency Override at JSCC in a previous year, please sign here_______________________________________and return only this page to the Financial Aid Office.
Please complete this entire form and provide the information listed below if you have never appealed for independent status before.

1.) Personal Statement
